CAN'T TAKE MY MIND OFF YOU

Just walk through the crowds
Mix along with
And blend in the code
Gotta bond in
And dashing through peers
I saw you so clean
I can't feel my feet
A smile that would glow
Through the darkness
It feels like a snow
In the garden
I came to believe
That you are the key
Missing puzzle piece

You started a war
Mind and heartbeat
I'm writing your thoughts
In a class meet
I'll walk through the doors
I'll pray to the god
To take up your course
It's hard to control
Tryna find you
Giant groups in the halls
Love to hide you
Seeing you under
The stairs, I wonder
Is that a Blunder?
Host a meeting, I just wanna sue you
No helping, can't take my mind off you
Wake me up to stop dreaming of you
I hope that you get the same déjà vu

EVERYDAY!

So many lies we hold on to,
So many smiles we hide,
So much we feel and excuse;
Make excuses, push aside;
And we question the unaccustomed,
The change.
A farce: everything is same,
Fine, and flawless;
Really unaddressed, piercing, prickling.
An act re-lived and repeated,
Safety and security of the known,
Woven, judiciously chosen.
So much we want,
And want to avoid,
So much we choose,
Without any choices;
So much, so much,
Everyday!

WISHED

She wished a no institution world
If it is there, unbounded
If not bound, not to be troubled.
What if we are not systematized,
What if everyone wish good and do good,
What if relationship are fated only by love,
What if there is no concept of gender,
What if everyone works hard and smart,
What if everyone can figure out what they are good at,
What if everyone figures out what they want to do,
What if they doesn't eat the fruit from tree of knowledge of good and evil,
What if all and sundry gets their action, its reaction and reaction's reaction so on and so forth.
What if she focus and pipe down in the middle of pandemonium, tradition and custom, the one which is synthetic and can only be torn down by the same.
And then she realized, she never submits her no deadline assignments.
